GIVE BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF WHAT HAPPENED:

On November 18, 2004, the Office of the Inspector General, Medicaid Fraud Control Unit received an "unusual incident report" (UIR) from Northwest Health Care Center (NHCC), 3333 Wisconsin Ave., NW, Washington DC, 20016. The report stated that Josephine Watson (C1), date of birth of September 12, 1929, who was a temporary resident of NHCC, had a bottle of White Diamond Perfume stolen from her room.

C1 stated that she used the perfume and left it on the bed in her room before she left for a walk. The perfume is valued at $75.00. A nursing supervisor, W1, and employees, W2 & W3, searched the resident's room and nursing floor unit for the perfume. Sylvia Jones, S1, a certified nursing assistant (CNA), searched for the perfume in the victim's room. After the search, W1 asked everyone to gather their belongings to show that an employee had not taken the perfume. Everyone gathered at the specified nurses' station located outside of C1's room. W2 and W3 stated that they saw S1 taking her purse into another room. W1 instructed S1 to bring her purse over to the nurses' station. As S1 approached the station she dropped a black plastic bag into the trash. W1 reached into the trash and retrieved the black bag. Inside of the black bag was a bottle of White Diamond Perfume. When W1 asked S1 "why did you do this?" S1 stated "I don't know." W1, W2, W3 informed S1 she could not leave the facility, but she left immediately. C1 identified the perfume as hers and it was returned to her.

Based upon interviews with C1, S1, W1, W2 and W3 during the course of this investigation, the Affiant believes S1 committed Criminal Theft from a Senior Citizen, over the age of sixty, in violation of DC Codes §§ 22-3601, and 3211. Based upon the above mentioned facts and circumstances probable cause exists for the District of Columbia Superior Court Judge to issue a warrant for the arrest of Sylvia Eugenia Jones for criminal theft from C1.

PLEASE ISSUE A WARRANT FOR:
